

Dog and Puppy Behavior Training 2017

Teach your dog to be a great companion and a polite family member! Our positive, science-based classes are open to the public as well as dogs adopted from our shelter!

Our Program

- Professional instruction
- Small class size

Puppy Class

- Puppy class for dogs ages 12 weeks to 6 months
- Classes are held Wednesday evenings at 6:45pm
- The six classes repeat continuously so new puppies may start any week between April 12 and September 20.

Dog Class

- Dog class for dogs ages 6 months and up
- Classes are held Wednesday evenings at 8pm
- New 6-week sessions for 2017 begin April 12, May 24, July 5, August 16 and September 27
- Pets attend all class sessions with owners.

Cost/Fees

- Cost per session is $100
- Discounts for CAHS members, alumni dogs and volunteers of 100+ hours
- Instructors volunteer their time —100% of your registration fee helps the animals at CAHS.

Details

- Classes take place at the Capital Area Humane Society in the 2nd Floor Training Hall. Use the Business Office entrance to the left of the main entrance.
- Bring current vaccination records from your veterinarian to the first class.
- Wear casual clothing and athletic shoes.
- Dogs and puppies should wear a flat buckle collar or harness. No metal collars allowed. Bring your dog to class on a 4-6 foot leash, please no flexi-leads.
